

New Midwife Application

Your Journey To Practicing Midwifery In Alberta

- Complete recognised midwifery education program
- Pass the Canadian Midwifery Registration Exam and any other requirements identified by the CMA
- Contact The College Of Midwives Of Alberta (CMA), The Alberta Association Of Midwives (AAM), Alberta Health Services (AHS)
- 🛇 Contact midwifery practices and find the right fit

Connect with AHS

- o Confirm a new position is available, or if there is a replacement position within a practice.
- o A midwife should contract with a midwifery practice in the province

The Alberta Association of Midwives

o Apply for membership & insurance

Alberta Health Services

o Request application from AHS o Submit completed application & supporting documents

o Confirm membership & insurance

The College of Midwives of Alberta

o Apply for registration & practice permit o Submit all supporting documents o Receive registration

The College of Midwives of Alberta

o Receive practice permit

Alberta Health Services

o Receive approval letter & offer letter o AHS will send letter to CMA & AAM verifying privileges
o AHS will notify the practice of approval

Start Working as a Registered Midwife in Alberta!